DAVID SYE & DAVID PUNSHON

The King Hippy Manifesto

KingHippy is an outfit that has evolved and formed naturally over time between its founders David Punshon and David Sye.

In honour of the many creative giants who pioneered and gave birth to a period of social change and transition, which brought forth a whole new era of consciousness and individual human expression that had previously only existed throughout within isolated and often persecuted pockets of bohemian free thinkers...

Honouring the spirits of individuals such as Arlo Guthrie, Leon Russell, Jimi Hendrix, Jack Karoack, Miles Davis, Timothy Leary, KingHippys intention is to act as a vortex of vital creativity devoted through sound and vision to exploring the limitless possibilities of expanded and heightened human consciousness and creativity and to support and action the spread of this evolution as a Zeitgeist throughout all of Human kind...

2019 is set to see King Hippy explode onto the scene at a time where the world needs a new voice to shake it up and create change.

DAVID SYE

Of Russian descent, King Hippy front man and song writer David Sye is the son of a scientist mother and international artist/performer Frankie Vaughan.

David has performance in his blood. He's been on stage since he was a child. bringing his love of music and movement into his iconic yoga practise Yogabeats.

A recognised yoga elder, David infuses his bohemian thinking, spirituality and colourful life experience into his song writing.

David's voice has range that cannot be taught. He can scale up and down the octaves easily, alternating between a silky softness to deep soul grooves.

David has had great success with performing internationally over the years, using his talent to raise awareness for conflict areas. He also had great success with the song '27' dedicated to the life of his cousin Amy Winehouse.

David is a true believer in how music can heal and make positive change in the world and King Hippy will take that mantle and lead.

DAVID PUNSHON

Keyboard maestro David Punshon is a force in music. His talents stretch back to playing his first piano at five years old and he hasn't stopped since.

His magic on the keys is influenced by a wide range of internal and external sources from psychedelia to spirituality to the jazz greats - this alone makes him a unique talent in music.

David has worked with many great bands over the years. Most notably Babe Ruth, where he provided keys for their iconic hit 'The Mexican'; set for a King Hippy makeover in 2019. His talent does what many musicians long for in that it crosses over genres, effortlessly, from playing keys with the Slovakian Radio Symphony orchestra to writing for smash hit computer games to cultivating the funk beats of King Hippy.

The relationship between Punshon and Sye is one that has grooved across time like a delicious wave, adapting it's flow all the time but always remaining fresh and true.
